

New Encounters with Jesus

John Bell, Iona Community

September 21 to 23, 2009

What more of our Maker have we yet to encounter? In this retreat, John Bell will reflect on aspects of the ministry of Jesus which are biblically verifiable but often eclipsed in the conversation of the Church.

John is a native of Kilmarnock, lives in Glasgow, and lectures throughout the world. He is a theologian, hymn-writer, author and broadcaster whose passion is for congregational song.

He does not have a mobile phone, driving licence, camera, i-pod, or wife. He has never eaten a Big Mac.

Begins 4 p.m. Monday; ends 1:30 p.m. Wednesday

$250 residential, $150 commuters, deposit $50
